

Concluding reflections

Key aspects of discussion

- Conflict between built and ecological infrastructures
- Disconnections, divides and misperceptions
- Displacements (colonial displacements continued, development - induced, climate refugees, by catastrophes)
- Contested landscapes
- Temporalities: colonial continuities; catastrophic vs. slow violence
- Framing and legitimatory discourses
- Contested notion of violence
- The importance of the kind of infrastructure

Peace – Open questions

- What kind of infrastructure do we need?
- How to bridge social inequalities within societies?
- What kind of societies do we want?
