

Theses related to topics

A. Social, political, cultural and economic processes

Yasir Awad Abdalla: Political Participation in Sudan. How Sudanese People Get Involved in Politics. University of Khartoum, Graduate College, Department of Political Science: January 2008. Supervised by Prof. Muhammed Osman Abu Saq. Degree: Dr Phil. In Political Science.

Samira Musa Armin Damin: Return Migration, Socio-economic and Cultural Change: Cases of the Nuba Mountains and Unity State. University of Juba, College of Graduate Studies, Department of Geography, College of Education: 2010. Supervised by Prof. Joshua Otor Akol. Degree: Dr. Phil. In Geography.

Berhanu Denu Genjo: The Role of Institutions in Improving the Performance of Investment in South Sudan after the Comprehensive Peace Agreement. University of Bremen, Faculty of Economics, Institute for World Economy and International Management IWIM: 2010. Supervised by Prof. Karl Wohlmuth. Degree: Dr rer. pol. in Economics.

Joseph Lodiong Lubajo: Basic Education and Training in South Sudan: Current Status, Challenges and Perspectives. University of Juba, College of Rural Development & Community Studies: 2012. Supervised by Prof. Eltayeb Wani Sule. Degree: MSc in Rural Development and Community Studies.

Tayseer Elfatih Abdel A'al: Participation in Decision Making Processes Regarding Land Issues in the Local Governance in South Kordofan and Upper Nile States. Ahfad University for Women, Omdurman, Institute for Women, Gender & Development Studies. Supervised by Prof. Balghis Badri.

B. Sustain peace

The following thesis deals with one key aspect of the Comprehensive Peace Agreement:

Rania Hassan Ahmed Ali: After the CPA: The Implementation of Power Sharing at the National Level. University of Khartoum, Academic Affairs Secretariat, Department of Political Science: December 2010. Supervised by Prof. Atta H. El-Battahani. Degree: MSc in Political Sciences.

C. Renewed or ongoing conflict

The following thesis looks into conflicts still to be solved in South Sudan:

John Moi Venus Ajjugo: Building of South Sudan within the Framework of Conflict Resolution: The Case of Former Upper Nile. University of Juba, Center for Peace and Development Studies: May 2012. Supervised by Prof. Samson S. Wassara. Degree: MA in Peace and Development Studies.

D. Sub-region

The following theses study sub-regional aspects of conflict and peace in Sudan and South Sudan:

Regassa Bayissa Sima: War and Peace in the Sudan and Its Impact on Ethiopia: The Case of Gambella 1955-2008. Addis Ababa University, School of Graduate Studies, Department of History: April 2010. Supervised by Prof. Tesema Ta'a. Degree: Dr Phil. In History.

Marilyn Risper Adongo Ossome: Southern Sudanese Children between Socialization in Kenya and Reintegration in Sudan. Ahfad University for Women, Omdurman, Academic Council, Institute for Women, Gender & Development Studies: April 2009. Supervised by Prof. Abdelghaffar Mohamed Ahmed. Degree: MSc in Gender and Development.

Yohana Matendo Lokiru: Effects of Social Networks on Livelihoods in Exile and Return: The Case of Southern Sudanese Refugees in Kenya. University of Nairobi, Institute of Development Studies: December 2009. Supervised by Prof. Mary Omosa. Degree: MA in Development Studies.

George Onyango Katete: Regional Dimensions of, and Institutional Solutions to, the Sudan's Civil War. University of Bremen, Faculty of Social Sciences, Institute for Intercultural and International Studies, IWIM: 2012. Supervised by Prof. Peter Mayer.