

Invitation

After independence – Scenarios for South Sudan and (North) Sudan

Panel discussion (in English)

Thursday, 14 July 2011,
17:30 – 19:30 hrs,
At BICC, Pfarrer-Byns-Straße 1, 53121 Bonn.

Ladies and gentlemen,

On Thursday, 14 July 2011, BICC (Bonn International Center for Conversion) cordially invites you to a panel discussion “After independence—Scenarios for South Sudan and (North) Sudan“ (in English).

South Sudan’s independence will begin on 9 July 2011. In January this year, the people of Southern Sudan decided in favor of its independence in a referendum. This referendum in many ways marks the ‘completion’ of the Comprehensive Peace Agreement (CPA) between the central government in Khartoum and the Sudanese People’s Liberation Movement (SPLM), which in 2005 had ended the year-long civil war between Northern and Southern Sudan.

Is there a real chance of sustainable peace? How will conflicts develop? What is the political and economic future of South Sudan and (North) Sudan going to look like? Which role will civil society play?

The following experts will shed light on these questions from their respective perspective and will be offering scenarios for discussion:

- Mohamed Gamal, General coordinator of New Sudan Civil Society Access, The Hague
- Johannes Lehne, East Africa Department, German Foreign Office
- Mathias Mogge, Executive Director Programmes, Programmes and Projects, German Agro Action.
- Peter Nickson Deng, Deputy Head of GOSS (Government of Southern Sudan) Mission in Brussels
- PD Dr. Elke Grawert, BICC

Moderator: Dr. Michael Ashkenazi, BICC

Please don’t forget to register by 12 July 2011. For more information please contact Susanne Heinke, BICC spokesperson, 0228/911 96 44, pr@bicc.de

Best regards

Susanne Heinke
BICC spokesperson

Please don't forget to register by 12 July 2011 per Fax or e-mail

Fax:+ 49 0228 - 911 96-22

E-Mail: pr@bicc.de

Panel discussion “After independence—Scenarios for South Sudan and (North) Sudan“
14 July 2011

I will attend

Name, Surname:

Organisation:

Adress:

Phone / Fax:

E-Mail: